

ROUND 3 INTERVIEW TRANSCRIPT: BILL GLASSON
Saturday, June 28, 2014

BILL GLASSON: I was kind of looking forward to it. I'm glad I birdied the last hole yesterday and put myself in there because until you get there and do it a few times, although I've won a few tournaments, it's been a long time. So it seems like a long time ago. I needed to do it for the experience going forward more than anything else. My score wasn't bad. Again, I got the most out of it I could. I made some good little par putts because I'm a little shaky over the putter. Switched to a long putter recently a couple weeks ago, so I'm still kind of trying to figure that thing out.

You know, hopefully I'll go to the range and hit some balls and hopefully get a ball flight. I just didn't have my curve on the ball today. I don't think it was from the position of playing in the last group. I didn't sleep very well. Not from that, but just I didn't sleep very well, so I kind of was dragging a little bit today and I was a little bit off. It's funny how everything, you know, when you're feeling good and you're synched up, good things happen, and when you're not, you've got to do the best you can and that was kind of the way I was today.

Q. You're right there in the mix.

Q. So do you think having that experience of playing in the last group sort of helps you for tomorrow?

BILL GLASSON: But now I'm out of the last group, so it kind of gives me a more comfortable place to be going -- I think I'll be in the second-to-last group. If I can get revitalized, I play this course fairly well, my past here is good, so I really don't expect really anything but shooting something good. I would like to and maybe put some pressure on, and being in front of the last group kind of helps in that regard.
