

Q. What are your thoughts right now?

HENRIK NORLANDER: I'm just happy. I mean, I hit two terrible drives. That ball should have gone in the hazard on the second one. It was a foot from the hazard. I'm just happy I've got another chance.

Q. What did they tell you about tomorrow morning, what time?

HENRIK NORLANDER: 8:00.

Q. 8:00, the par 3. So what's the mindset now?

HENRIK NORLANDER: Just go eat dinner, relax and try to make a birdie.

Q. You're a pretty laid-back guy, you don't seem too nervous.

HENRIK NORLANDER: This is just a great chance, an opportunity. Yeah, worst case, I'm second.

Q. How dark was it on the putt here?

HENRIK NORLANDER: I had no clue. When my caddie took out the flag, I had no clue where the hole was. It was borderline to putt, but it would have been nice if someone would have made it.

Q. Are you in here on a sponsor exemption?

HENRIK NORLANDER: Yeah, I have no status.

Q. What's it mean to be in this position to have a chance to win tomorrow?

HENRIK NORLANDER: It feels pretty good, yeah. I'm just happy, like I said, to have a chance. That's all I can say. Try to make birdie.

Q. Given your status, was it hard to block all that out down the stretch?

HENRIK NORLANDER: I mean, I really didn't think about it because I mean, whatever. I mean, I've got full Web category and everything else will be a bonus. I really felt I was calmer in the last six holes than I was on the first six holes on Thursday. I just felt like keep on hitting good shots and putt good. Yeah, new day tomorrow.
