
Q. Exceptional round, obviously put yourself in contention for the TOUR Championship. Talk about what that means.

KEVIN KISNER: Obviously that's the goal at the beginning of the year. You can't win the FedExCup if you're not at the TOUR Championship so that's a goal to get here every year, and to have a chance on Sunday is all we can ask for, man.

Q. There's a lot of different scenarios that can happen, some of them are playing out. A lot of the top-5 aren't at the top of the leaderboard, Jordan's a little bit down, Justin's right at the top. Are you going to scoreboard watch tomorrow or are you just going to play tomorrow?

KEVIN KISNER: No, I just go play like I'm trying to win any other tournament. I've done it before but I've got to get that putter rolling a little better than and I have. I just don't have a lot of confidence in it, missed a lot coming in. I could have probably taken a two- or three-shot lead if I had knocked in the putts coming in.

Q. The TOUR Championship's obviously a big tournament for everybody but everybody from the area, from the south, having the Georgia background.

KEVIN KISNER: It's awesome being able to hear all the "Go Dawgs" out there. There's a lot of people I know and a lot of people that love me and like me out here, so I feel like it's kind of a hometown event.

Q. And speaking of Go Dawgs, you've got a fun little trip coming up?

KEVIN KISNER: Yeah, 15 minutes we're getting on a helicopter to go to Athens and pull the Dawgs through, the good Dawgs.

Q. How did the helicopter thing come about, can you talk through that just a little bit?

KEVIN KISNER: Well, Twitter's a pretty amazing thing. I just tweeted it out last night and it was pretty cool that people started reaching out to me. There was a lot of people that gave me an opportunity and it worked out.
