

BRONSON BURGOON (-10)

BRONSON BURGOON: (In progress) battled through some injuries, it's been tough to get back feeling like my game's good. I missed the cut the last two weeks, but I felt like I was progressing the right way. It's nice to finally start seeing some results.

Q. What was it like being out there with Tiger with the buzzing crowds?

BRONSON BURGOON: Honestly, the crowds are the crowds, but Tiger was one of the most enjoyable rounds I've ever played in my life. He made it so low key, we talked the whole way around. He's a true gentleman. He's in my opinion the greatest golfer ever to play, so it was one of my best rounds I've ever played.

Q. So links golf, how does that suit your game? Have you played much of it?

BRONSON BURGOON: Not too much, but I've got a 2-iron that I hit pretty low and hard, so we'll see. Hopefully, it works out. Yeah, I would love the challenge.

Q. Bronson, there's been a number of times this year where, especially since Tiger's been out for a couple years and there's been a massive turnover, he's played with guys that he probably didn't know who they were at the start of the year. From your perspective, when you see that text you get last night from the Tour about your tee time --

BRONSON BURGOON: I was thrilled. I was watching Beau and when he bogeyed 17, my heart sank, and then when he made that putt, I was so happy. Because to me, yeah, the crowds I knew were going to be crazy, but they were going to be crazy if I was right behind him or in front of him, it didn't matter, and I wanted to play with him. I've looked up to the guy since I've been 12 years old, so it was a dream come true. Yeah, when that putt went in on Beau's 54th hole, I was jumping up and down, I was so happy. It was exciting.

Q. Pretty good crowd today size-wise?

BRONSON BURGOON: It was unbelievable, I've never seen anything like it. I've played with Jordan and Rickie. I mean, they bring a crowd, but nothing -- I mean, that's a sea of people, unbelievable.

Q. Not too much of a distraction?

BRONSON BURGOON: You know, it is what it is. I was in the moment, and honestly, I was just trying to beat Tiger.

Q. Have you seen him this year?

BRONSON BURGOON: Tiger?

Q. Yeah.

BRONSON BURGOON: I've seen him, yeah, at Torrey and stuff like that.

Q. Introductions?

BRONSON BURGOON: No, first time we met.

Q. C'mon, you guys are colleagues.

BRONSON BURGOON: I know, but he's busy and I'm not going to -- you know, I'm going to give him the space and respect that.
