

FINAL ROUND INTERVIEW
September 16, 2018

PAUL BROADHURST

PAUL BROADHURST: Pretty special. You know, I was seriously wondering whether I would play this week. Back home last week, and pulled a muscle in my back. And the physio has done a great job out here this week to get me fit.

And obviously pleased to be here. And I won once again in Michigan.

Q. Yeah, beware of the injured, right?

PAUL BROADHURST: Well, yeah. It's just one of those things. I mean, old age, I guess. I just pulled a muscle in my back, and had a bit of physio back home. And probably last Sunday was the first time I shot start to end.

So, yeah to come here and play as well as I did -- although at times it was really scrappy. My game wasn't totally in the groove. It was in spells, but similar to -- the back nine today was a little bit scrappy, a few poor tee shots. And the rhythm was getting quicker and quicker. But that goes with the pressure of leading the tournament, I'm sure.

Q. Absolutely, you got it done.

Now, great par save at 9 and 10, but the putt at 13 kind of turned the tides just a little bit.

PAUL BROADHURST: It did, yeah. I mean, I got down there and I'm at the end of a divot, which wasn't great. I guess that was -- that obviously made my mind up to lay up. I got no chance of getting to the green from there. But it's one of those bums from the PGA a few weeks -- well, a few months ago. It was probably going a few feet by as well, but you make it work, I guess, and you have to take the chances.

And I got fortunate on 14. I really didn't know how to play the second shot, no idea. And just at the last moment I looked and I thought, well, maybe I could squeeze it through that gap in the trees. And it was a bit of a Seve-y type shot, but it was a shot that I've got to play. I haven't got any option really other than to chip it in the trap. And then it was a tricky bunker shot. So that was a big four to make there.

Q. Well, it was a grind, I know. You moved up to sixth in the Charles Schwab Cup standings. Good luck the rest of the way. We really appreciate your time.
