

ABRAHAM ANCER

Q. It was a good fight out there, mate. That was pretty tough conditions.

ABRAHAM ANCER: Yeah, tough conditions out there. I feel like in the middle of the round it kind of was a little bit tamer than what it was at the end and the beginning. But yeah, always nice to kind of hang in there and post a good round with tough conditions.

Q. I imagine patience is the key on this course for you?

ABRAHAM ANCER: Yeah, you have to be real patient here. The greens are very tricky, so they've got a lot of movement, but also a little subtle movement around where the holes are punched. Yeah, you've just got to be really precise.

Q. I was clapping and cheering for you, I thought you might have nailed that eagle putt on the short 13. Does that sort of thing give you momentum when you can take it on and you have a good result?

ABRAHAM ANCER: Yeah, it's always nice to be able to go for a green on a par 4 and just hit it right in the middle of the green, fly it there. That was nice. I thought I made that putt. And also the next hole I actually ended up making par, but it's stuff that's going to happen. Just got to be patient and keep plugging along.

Q. Did you fear the worst when you teed off in those conditions?

ABRAHAM ANCER: No. I grew up in very windy conditions, and in college we played a lot of this kind of golf. We just got to be positive about it. There's going to be a lot of guys that are going to be whining about it and just got to beat them mentally.
