

COLLIN MORIKAWA (-4)

Q. Collin, you had a solid start today. Just your thoughts on the round and playing with your buddy, Matt Wolff?

COLLIN MORIKAWA: Yeah, obviously playing with Matt is a lot of fun. We've played together a million times and there's just a familiarity when you step on the first tee with someone you know.

I've gotten to meet Adam a little bit over the past month as well and he's a great guy.

Yeah, no, the putt looked good on one and that's when I know it's going to be a good day, if I'm able to start the ball online and just keep that going. I knew if I just kept giving myself chances, you know, they're going to drop. I had a few really close ones, which is always nice to have tap-in birdies. Just got to keep that up and hopefully a few more will drop tomorrow and the next few days.

Q. You mentioned earlier that you're very comfortable playing with Matt. What kind of conversations do you guys have out there to kind of keep it loose?

COLLIN MORIKAWA: Just about anything. You know, we're brand new to this professional stuff. Obviously he's moving out to Florida, I moved out to Vegas, so just kind of figuring out what we're going to be doing, who we're going to be playing with. You know, I know we're going to have a few dinners together at some point over the next few weeks, should be really fun. Yeah, he's going to be a good friend of mine forever and it's going to be really fun just kind of watching us play for years to come.
