

JOSH TEATER (-11)

Q. Josh, I know you wanted that putt certainly on nine, but still 11 under par after two days, that's some solid play right here in Greensboro.

JOSH TEATER: Yeah, thank you very much. You know, driver's been going where I'm looking. My irons, too. For the most part, the putter. A couple maybe missed the speed there on nine and eight, but I'm looking forward to the weekend.

Q. You're 165th in FedExCup points. How big are the next two days for you considering things could change very rapidly the next 36 holes?

JOSH TEATER: Yeah, they could, but the only thing I can control is my tee shot tomorrow. So I'm going to go out and have fun and see where I can end up. I know what the backup plan is, I'm okay with that.

Q. How important is all the experience that you have on this course, and you've had some previous success as well?

JOSH TEATER: Yeah, it means a lot. I haven't been here in four years, but not much has changed. I enjoyed playing. There's a lot of blind tee shots, but I feel like I've looked at the same target for a number of years, so looking forward to getting out there.

Q. That orange Greensboro Grasshoppers hat brought you a lot of luck. Best of luck on the weekend, Josh.

JOSH TEATER: Thanks a lot, appreciate it.

Q. Second straight round in the 60s, just seemed like everything until that last hole was going your way today.

JOSH TEATER: Yeah, it went well anyway. I just kind of played it a little lower than I wanted, but yeah, hitting the ball nice and putting nice. Pretty loose out there.

Q. Two rounds like this (inaudible).

JOSH TEATER: Yeah, I feel good. I'm looking forward to tomorrow and getting dinner tonight and rest up and come back and do it again.

Q. I saw you yesterday with the Grasshoppers hat and again today with it. How did that come about?

JOSH TEATER: So a few years ago, went back to Donald Moore over there at the Grasshoppers. He had us out for some batting practice four or five years ago. He contacted me on, I guess, Saturday last week and said, "Hey, we've got a game Monday, that's the only night we're in town if you want to come." I said sure. I said, "I don't have a hat sponsor, either, so hey, if you've got any hats, I might wear one." I've been on a pretty good hat collection all year, so we had the green one yesterday and orange one today. May go back to the green one tomorrow, maybe this one Sunday. I got to throw out the first pitch Monday, so maybe that was some good vibes for the week.

Q. Do you feel like your position coming into this week allows you to kind of go for broke?

JOSH TEATER: For sure, yeah. I made my mind up I think going into the Barbasol, you know, I'm solidified for the Korn Ferry Playoffs, so if I miss three cuts, oh, well, let's go play our best.
