

ROUND 2 INTERVIEW
November 16, 2019

ADAM LONG (-10)

Q. Adam, I want to know what the motivational speech was out there standing on the fourth tee with where this round was because you turned it on and the hole had to look pretty big coming in.

ADAM LONG: Yeah, I told my caddie, Jules, there, on like two fairway I'm like, "I'm going to birdie every hole after here. I don't know what you're going to do, but that's what I'm going to do." I was just getting sick of like not feeling that great out there and just being a little out of sync and stuff. I just kind of got to a boiling point maybe where I was just like, "That's enough of that, let's go, let's turn this around."

Q. Is it merely frustration that can help do that, or how can you make an adjustment like that on the fly when you're out on the golf course?

ADAM LONG: A little bit, yeah. It's just like enough of that. I'm playing well enough, I feel good enough about my game right now that I'm not going to keep this up, let's turn it around and get back to making some birdies.

Q. I said on the air, I go, you're playing 36 before, as many tomorrow, I figured like this is one of the days you wish it was a marathon, because the way that you finished, you want to go out and get nine more holes in and play until it's dark I would imagine?

ADAM LONG: Yeah, exactly, you said it. I'm ready to keep going and go to one right now and start it up. No, it's a good way to finish, it will make dinner taste better and give me some momentum going into tomorrow.
