

TYRRELL HATTON (-4)

Q. How would you describe your round out there today?

TYRRELL HATTON: Overall, I'm actually quite happy to shoot the score I did. I didn't feel very comfortable with my long game and I was actually struggling to read the greens. Even in practice I felt like I was going to struggle a little bit this week with putting. All things considered, I'm very happy to shoot 4 under and be bogey free as well, which is nice, and hopefully I can play a bit better for the rest of the week.

Q. When you have those feelings going into a round, how do you kind of determine how you get it done out there?

TYRRELL HATTON: Yeah, those are obviously not nice feelings to have, but at the end of the day you've just got to go out there and try your best like you always do and hopefully it works out, and I guess today was a good day, so I'm happy about it.

Q. What did you take away from the RBC Heritage week?

TYRRELL HATTON: Oh, it was just -- well, I was surprised with where my game was with the limited amount of practice I had done, to be honest, during the quarantine period. It was just nice to be in contention again. I enjoyed that feeling and I was happy with how I played. I don't feel like I sort of folded under the pressure, so that obviously gave me some confidence. Had last week off to practice and not 100 percent comfortable this week, just got to grind it out. Not always going to feel good on the course.
