

MATTHEW WOLFF (-20)

Q. How would you characterize the day, how it went for you?

MATTHEW WOLFF: Yeah, it was definitely a grind out there. Didn't start off really well at all, wasn't hitting it how I was the beginning of the week and feel like I was really getting some bad breaks as well, which was pretty unfortunate. The bad lie in the bunker on 10. I feel like I hit a couple putts out there that I really didn't feel like I pulled them or pushed them or anything, they just didn't go in. I misread them or they hit some bumps or stuff like that. But overall I'm really happy with where I'm at right now.

Bryson played great; 7 under, you know, it's not like I gave it to him, he definitely earned it. Kudos to him.

I'm looking to get another win in the near future, but I'm in a really good spot mentally and with my game right now, so I'm not looking at this week as a disappointment in any sense.

Q. Sounds like you think of this more as a positive because you made some strides even though you kind of maybe just chalk today up to golf?

MATTHEW WOLFF: Yeah, you know, it's all learning. I feel like I got it done last time I was in the lead after 54 holes, but this time I didn't, but I've only been in that position twice. So I'm really excited, I feel like I'm going to be in that position a lot more in the future. The only thing you can do is learn from this experience and feel more and more comfortable the more times you're in that position, so next time I'll feel more comfortable and the time after that I'll feel even more comfortable.

Q. We know that you guys always want to win, that's what you guys are out here to do, but sometimes can you learn more from defeat than you can from victory?

MATTHEW WOLFF: I think so. I mean, obviously it would be really nice to win, but yeah, how I started off the day, I feel like I was letting things get to me a little more than I had at the beginning of the week, just little bad breaks, bad shots, stuff like that. You know, like I said, next time I'm in this position I feel like I'll be a lot more comfortable and so on. Like I said, I've taken all positives out of this week and looking to carry it on into the near future.
