

THOMAS PIETERS

Q. Just kind of assess your round today. After 36 holes, how are you feeling going into the weekend?

THOMAS PIETERS: Yeah, I'm hitting it quite solid. I mean, 11 under is quite good. Playing this course for the first time on Tuesday with this wind, I thought it was going to be trickier at this point. But, yeah, the par 5s are gettable. And if you can kind of hit the fairways in the right spots, and give yourself chances, and I -- I made some good par putts today, which helped. But overall, I'm very happy.

Q. Was there any particular hole, a particular shot, that you felt was a real momentum boost for you today?

THOMAS PIETERS: No, but I saved par about three or four times after kind of missing it in the wrong spot, and that kind of kept my round going. I just made a couple easy birdies on the par 5s. And other than that, I made -- like I said, I held up pretty well.
