

JOSE MARIA OLAZABAL (E)

Q. (No microphone.)

JOSE MARIA OLAZABAL: I had enough trying to keep it on the fairway.

Q. No, but I mean just what is, you know, I mean, did you have any memories or any --

JOSE MARIA OLAZABAL: Not today, no. I was trying to focus on the job at hand. You know, the game is a little bit off at the moment, so I had enough of the task trying to score as low as possible.

Q. Nice birdie on 16, though. How far was that?

JOSE MARIA OLAZABAL: That was --

Q. Fifteen?

JOSE MARIA OLAZABAL: No, more. I would say 18 feet, a good 18 feet, something like that.

Q. You did it just like the old days there.

JOSE MARIA OLAZABAL: Yeah.

Q. I mean, to shoot -- I assume you're still even, right?

JOSE MARIA OLAZABAL: Yes.

Q. To shoot even on a day like this?

JOSE MARIA OLAZABAL: Obviously the golf course is playing completely -- much more different when we played here before. The golf course is much longer. It was quite breezy today, I have to say. Even though the greens were holding, but I'm hitting much longer clubs into the greens than I used to in those days and that makes it obviously more difficult.

Q. What happened on the 10th tee shot? Nervous?

JOSE MARIA OLAZABAL: No, no. As I said -- no, no. As I said, the swing is a little bit off, especially with the driver. I haven't hit all that many fairways today, either. I went from 17 and I hit the fairway until No. 8, I didn't hit a single fairway. There you go.

Q. Just wanted to see if you were nervous.

JOSE MARIA OLAZABAL: No, no. It could be, but that's not the case.
