

TROY MERRITT (-18, lost 5th playoff hole)

Q. I really admire the way you fought and ground it out here today. You had so many elimination putts and you just hung in there, just never gave up the whole day.

TROY MERRITT: Yeah, and that's what you've got to do out here against these guys. I keep grinding. You never know when you're going to make a few putts to get yourself back in it. We were able to do that on the back side today; unfortunately, we came up just one short. Cam played fantastic in the playoff, he had putt after putt to win. He did what he had to do and great champion.

Q. You're kind of tettering in FedExCup points, no doubt you're in the FedExCup Playoffs now.

TROY MERRITT: Yeah, it's been a nice couple two months, four top-10s, now nice finish this week. I just hope for that win we're knocking on the door for.

Q. Well, it was a marathon week here for Troy Merritt at the Rocket Mortgage, ultimately the 15th hole your undoing. If you can just take us through what unfolded?

TROY MERRITT: Yeah, I could have used the couple birdies we made on Thursday and Friday in the playoff. I hit -- I didn't think I hit that poor pitching wedge that time, the first one was pretty poor to go in the bunker. But Cam did what he had to do, he put it on the green every hole, had a chance to win five times, hit great putts and he just played fantastic. So my hat's off to him. We gave it all we had, it was just not quite good enough.

Q. What did you show yourself in that playoff making clutch par after clutch par?

TROY MERRITT: Just knowing that the stuff that you do actually during the tournament, just trying to keep it simple, keep things nice and loose and soft, just try to put the best stroke you can on it, just grind out those putts outside of 10 feet. Unfortunately, we just came up one short, but we got to hit more greens and we didn't do that.

Q. The trend you're on these last two months to then be feeling that pressure on a Sunday, big picture, if you could just take us through how meaningful that was.

TROY MERRITT: Yeah, it's been a solid two months. Another fantastic week this week. Can't thank Rocket Mortgage enough, City of Detroit, they've done a fantastic job again this year. The golf course is fantastic, the field was great and they've got a great champion. I'm just trying to do my part, play as well as I can. We'll get another one here. Hopefully, it's around the corner.
