

ROUND 3 INTERVIEW
July 17, 2021

SEAMUS POWER (-16)

Q. You talked yesterday about your confidence being up having stringed together top-25 finishes and it's looking like you put yourself in contention for tomorrow, too. So can you talk about that confidence?

SEAMUS POWER: Yeah, my game, it's in a good spot. I kind of know what my golf ball's going to do, which is the biggest battle really I have. Yeah, I like the greens here. Obviously today after the morning rain they were kind of beat up there in the afternoon, but all in all, in a decent spot. We'll need another low one tomorrow, so hopefully get it going.

Q. In the beginning of the round, do you pay attention to the leaderboard at all with James Hahn chasing 59?

SEAMUS POWER: Was he really? No, I really don't. I didn't realize that at all. It's one of those courses I don't see the -- everyone's making birdies everywhere. It's going to be the same tomorrow. So yeah, no, tried to focus on my own thing and go from there, but that's awesome. Did he get close?

Q. Close to it, gave himself contention there on the final 18 for a birdie, but ended up with 60.

SEAMUS POWER: Wow.

Q. Is that a score to chase tomorrow? What will it take for tomorrow?

SEAMUS POWER: Yeah, I have no idea. It's one of those courses you're going to try to make as many birdies as you can. I haven't seen the forecast, I'm guessing it's going to be similar. Just more of the same and hopefully a couple putts drop.
