

ROGER SLOAN (-15, lost second playoff hole)

Q. Roger, have you ever seen anything as wild as a six-man playoff like this?

ROGER SLOAN: You know, I kept saying this afternoon coming down the last few holes and even on the playoff, I was just remembering Russell Crow and Gladiator: "Are you not entertained?"

It's so cool to be a part of this. Great finish and a lot of great players here in the playoff. Congrats to Kisner for pulling it out, but man, that was a lot of fun.

Q. Despite not getting a win, you did get into the FedExCup Playoffs. Your reaction to that, plus the way you played the last six weeks (inaudible)?

ROGER SLOAN: Well, I'm very thankful that we were able to put enough points on the board this week to get into the Playoffs. I was in a good place this week. I was okay with no matter where the chips fell and I think that gave me a lot of power on the golf course. Just very thankful.

Q. What are you most looking forward to?

ROGER SLOAN: Liberty National is my only other time that I qualified for the Playoffs, so I'm looking forward to going back. We've got family that lives in Manhattan, so just really excited to play next week, and I have a full schedule next year
