

TALOR GOOCH ( -22)

Q. Talor, that's what I call running through the finish line. You begin the day with a three-shot lead and you go out and you shoot 64 to win running away. Congratulations. What are your thoughts?

TALOR GOOCH: Man, it was a great week. I played well all week obviously, and today being a crucial day, I had a couple opportunities where things could have taken a turn for the worse and I was able to make some clutch putts. At the beginning of the week I got with Callaway and we got a new putter in the bag and it worked out pretty good for the week. I made a few putts this week.

Q. Made just a few putts. Tell me about your start because I was down at Mayakoba at the World Wide Technology Championship when things didn't go your way on Sunday, and you made a nice run at the CJ CUP in Las Vegas and didn't win. I thought it was important for you to start well to get a little confidence with that putter and you go out and birdie two of your first four holes.

TALOR GOOCH: Yeah, you know, you feel like you give yourself a little cushion to begin the round. You never want to feel like you're digging yourself out of a hole to begin. Like I said, the putter was rolling even though I missed a couple good opportunities midway through the round, but made a couple good putts early and was able to kind of just keep my foot on the gas all day.

Q. Just a dominating inward nine for you, none better than that 15th hole. You hit it closest to the pin of everyone in the field. Maybe a little disappointed the eagle didn't go, but that birdie was sure a nice cushion.

TALOR GOOCH: Oh, yeah, that was kind of the final topper. I knew getting birdie there, that was going to give me a good cushion coming down to the last three. So that was a great shot I hit in there and yeah, it was a good birdie.

Q. You have your wife, Ally, here. You have your little baby girl, Collins, here. What does it mean for you to have your wife at this juncture? You turned 30 just a week ago today.

TALOR GOOCH: Yeah, it's just such blessings. God has been so good to us and I give all the glory to Him. Can't say anything more than I've been extremely blessed my whole life and He's continued to put people in my life that's helped propel me to get to this point. So all glory to Him and it's been a blessing.

Q. Do I understand a boys' golf trip has to be postponed because you'll be at the Sentry Tournament of Champions in January?

TALOR GOOCH: Yeah, that was the only downfall to this. We're going to have to figure something out. We're going to have to make another day for that little boys' trip.
