

GREYSON SIGG (-13)

Q. So I'm just going to start with it explain what happened between 9 and 10.

GREYSON SIGG: Yeah. So I birdied No. 9 and get up to 10 and I was like, you know, I might need to go to the bathroom here. So I hit my shot on 7, or on 10 with a 7-iron pretty fast and I knew it was a good shot. We couldn't see it go in, no one really made any reaction. So I threw my club to my caddie and I took off and I came in the locker room, went to the bathroom, and as I was walking out, one of the locker room attendants was like, "Great shot, hole-in-one," and I was like, "No way." I like still didn't even really think because I was trying to hurry and get back out. And as a rules official was taking me back down, they were like on the green like doing like this. So it was a pretty funny story. I didn't see it go in, nor did I even get the ball out of the hole.

Q. Club and distance again? 7-iron.

GREYSON SIGG: Yeah, it was a 7-iron and I think it was -- I'll tell you here one second, if I even wrote it down. Yeah, 185 yards. Yeah, 185.

Q. And then how many career?

GREYSON SIGG: This is my first career hole-in-one on the PGA TOUR and in competition. So I think this is my fifth one in my whole life. It's pretty cool, this is my favorite story yet, though.
