

DAVID LINGMERTH (-17)

Q. David, overall great week, finished today with a 6-under 65. Just some thoughts on how you felt.

DAVID LINGMERTH: You know, it's just fun to be back playing out here consistently. I feel like I can, you know, actually play golf again. I've been going through a little bit of this and that and struggled with injuries and confidence. I'm starting to put a few things together, which is fun because, you know, I don't know, I did a lot of good things out here I guess this week, but it still wasn't all -- you know, there's always more to take from it. But I'm just happy to be back and playing somewhat the way I know I'm capable of.

Q. How would you kind of grade yourself as far as your mental game goes? You mentioned kind of getting down, results not coming around. Do you feel like you're pretty level headed knowing that you can get it back?

DAVID LINGMERTH: Yeah, I feel like I'm in a good spot right now. It's a tough game. It's so easy to get down on yourself, you demand so much all the time. You know you can hit certain shots and when you don't pull them off, it's easy to get frustrated.

The better rhythm you get in, you know, better state of mind, like those misses don't bother you as much. I feel right now that, you know, I can let things kind of run off in a better way and I'm like, let's go get it on the next one. Just a lot more patient. Yeah, fun week.
