ROUND 1 INTERVIEW

May 18, 2023

WILSON FURR (-9)

Q. Good start to the week, 9 under to finish the first round. How are you feeling after that?

WILSON FURR: Pretty good, yeah. It went pretty well. Yeah, I just feel like I'm playing well. So I've just been trying to keep it rolling and keep going, and that's what I kept telling myself today and that's what I did.

Q. Second straight tournament where you set the course record. Is there anything specific clicking right now or is just everything good in your game, you're feeling good?

WILSON FURR: I feel like, I don't know, just maybe a little bit of a mindset shift. Feel like I got kicked in the face enough times to where I finally just kind of snapped into it and was like, you know, the last two weeks I've had my back up against the wall pretty good. So yeah, it's definitely been a little bit more focused and just a lot more feeling like kind of just keep going, don't try to ease into a round or whatever, birdie the first and birdie the second, so that's been kind of my mindset.

Q. A little bit more of a mental change for you rather than changing physically with your game?

WILSON FURR: Yeah.

Q. How difficult is that to balance focusing in but also reminding yourself, all right, this is what you've been doing your whole life, do what you're good at?

WILSON FURR: Yeah, I mean, that's something I am good at. I do trust like that I can do the shot, I can hit the shots. It's more just sometimes just not getting ahead of myself and not compounding mistakes and getting mad. Like I said, this has just been -- I've kind of had my back -- like I said, I had to play for some status and, you know, like I said, it brings out the best in me.

Q. Any of the birdies today stand out, or any of the holes where you knew early on like, all right, this could be a good day?

WILSON FURR: Yeah, the par-3 14th, the one down there, 14, I made like a 20-footer and the place went nuts. I pointed at a guy, I was like, so after that we just kept it rolling so that was pretty cool.

Q. So you're one of those who kind of you need some consequences and kind of some hard moments --

WILSON FURR: My mom would tell you the same thing, she struggled punishing me.

Q. Yeah, so you're like if someone says yes, you're saying no; if it's a no for you or if someone says no, it's a yes for you?

WILSON FURR: I don't know, sometimes you just need something to snap your focus. I thought I was focused, you know, going into this. And I was, but it's a different -- I don't know, when you have your back that far against the wall and just having to play, I just think that less stuff matters. Like I have one objective and I've got to go do X, just keeps me less in the clouds.

Q. How was -- so that two-week break between a really good finish in Huntsville, then two weeks off and then now again, how difficult was it to kind of keep that momentum from a break?

WILSON FURR: Not too bad. I played some golf at home and then attended two graduations, so if that doesn't get your game right, I don't know what will. Yeah, just that's all I did, nothing too crazy.
