

ROUND 3 INTERVIEW
June 10, 2023

JOSH TEATER (-17)

Q. All right, 1 under today, one-stroke lead heading into the final round. Just kind of walk me through initial thoughts on that.

JOSH TEATER: Yeah, still in the driver's seat, I think. Usually 1 under out here maybe doesn't keep you there, but it was a little bit of a fight. Like on the last hole, just barely in the rough and playing for a flyer, still went too far and just narrowly missed that putt. But I made some good pars to hang in there and a nice birdie there on 16 after the poor 15th. But hey, just going to come back out tomorrow and have some fun.

Q. Been in this position, one of those times converted into your win in Utah. Is there anything you can pull from that experience or remember back on when you were here in 2009?

JOSH TEATER: Yeah, think back a long time for that, but just to go out and have fun and just know that, hey, I'm in good hands. Just see where we end up.

Q. What's the one thing you're going to try to focus on if there's anything? Are you going to go practice tonight or are you just done for the day? What's the plan for getting ready?

JOSH TEATER: Just kind of take it easy, go back and get some food and just relax. I think I saw the Kentucky baseball game was delayed, so I think it starts at 8:05 now, so I've got something to watch.
