ERIC COLE (-10)

Q. Eric, another good round, 68 today, followed your only bogey of the day with an eagle there at 17. That's got to make lunch taste a little better. Just a few thoughts about today?

ERIC COLE: Yeah, no, it was an overall good day. Not quite as sharp as yesterday, but kind of held it together a little bit. And then it was nice to make that eagle on 17, hit two good shots and made a nice putt, so that's always a good thing.

Q. What did you have into 17?

ERIC COLE: I had 241 maybe, somewhere around there. It was 223 to the front, so I was just trying to land it a little past the front edge.

Q. First of all, the belt, love the belt. So snazzy.

ERIC COLE: Thank you.

Q. When -- you were talking about following up the bogey with the eagle, how have you worked on having a short memory between holes in order to be able to wash that out?

ERIC COLE: Yeah, it's definitely part of golf, you're going to make bogeys and doubles and hopefully you don't make too many of them. But it's just one hole, I try and think about it that way, and then the next hole's a new hole and try to get over it as fast as you can.
