ANDY SULLIVAN (-7)

Q. Andy, 65, excellent round. If we can get some comments on your play?

ANDY SULLIVAN: Yeah, just come out playing really nicely, felt like I was swinging it well yesterday and just took that into today. Obviously love being in the States, the greens really suit me out here and feel like I can roll the putts in. It was just a combination of hitting really good shots and the putter got going.

Q. Take us through the eagle on 15.

ANDY SULLIVAN: Yeah, that hole suits me down to the ground. A little left-to-right tee shot, I hit a good one down there, got 4-, 5-iron into a left pin and just held it up to like six feet and had a pretty straight putt, which is always nice when you get that from six feet for eagle.

Q. And that hole suits you well, but how about the course in general?

ANDY SULLIVAN: Yeah, I feel like there's a lot of holes where you can start it down the left and just peel it off, which is golden for me. Whoever set the pins out there, I have a lot to thank, there's a lot of right pins out there, so it worked out for me as well. Yeah, like I said, I played last year. I enjoyed the course last year, I just didn't really get going, but this year enjoyed it.

Q. You had that experience last year, now this year. What is the biggest adjustment that you guys have to make coming over here?

ANDY SULLIVAN: I think it's just a mindset thing. I think it's always been that, something different and unknown for a lot of guys and I think when you start feeling comfortable, you adapt. Been doing it for a long time now, been over here a few times, so I feel pretty comfortable within myself and my game.

Q. Would you be surprised if I said this was your 101st round on the PGA TOUR?

ANDY SULLIVAN: I'd be amazed. I didn't think it was that many, to be fair, so that does surprise me. Wow, what a milestone.

Q. You said you like coming here, though. Would you like to play here more?

ANDY SULLIVAN: Yeah.

Q. Is this a good opportunity for you to maybe find your way here?

ANDY SULLIVAN: Hundred percent, yeah. This year for me obviously things have -- started to play a little bit better the last few years, been stuck in the doldrums a little bit. So just find my way through that really, navigating it and starting to find my game again, find my feet, and as you do that the confidence comes back. Doesn't matter where you play, when you're confident, you can get it around any number.
