

East Lake Cup Men – Match Play
October 30, 2024

JACKSON KOIVUN
Auburn

Q. So congrats. Come down to the wire, you're the last match, last point to win. What's that like winning on 17?

JACKSON KOIVUN: Yeah, it felt great. We weren't able to get a win in the fall and to top it off here felt really good. Just kind of reminisces of Nationals.

Q. Is that pressure-filled moment, that something you can take forward in the spring and the rest of your career?

JACKSON KOIVUN: Yeah, definitely. The more you put yourself in pressure situations, the more you're going to get used to them. Fortunately I was able to put myself in a couple of those last year and kind of felt like clockwork on the last putt.

Q. Obviously golf is a bit of mostly an individual sport. What's it like to come through for the team in that moment and get that team victory like that?

JACKSON KOIVUN: Yeah, it feels great. You're fighting for a lot more than just yourself, you're fighting for your brothers and the university behind you.

Q. And one last thing: What's it like getting to play three days out here at this historic venue?

JACKSON KOIVUN: Oh, it's a great golf course. I wasn't able to play before the redo, but the course is great. It's a true honor to play out here.
