

ROUND 4 QUICK QUOTES
November 24, 2024

NICO ECHAVARRIA (-15)

Q. Nico, solid week, one shot short of the playoff, but what's going through your mind right now and how's it feel to have another good performance overall?

NICO ECHAVARRIA: Yeah, I'm very happy with the week. Obviously finishing with a bogey on the last hole having the lead, it's not awesome, but I didn't feel comfortable at all the last two days and I just played my heart out out there.

I was almost on defensive mode a lot of times and leaning on my putter and the putter got hot. Unfortunately, the one on the last hole didn't drop but overall it was an amazing week.

Q. How much did the win at ZOZO help your, I guess, overall confidence and vibe out here week to week?

NICO ECHAVARRIA: Yeah, it always helps to win. It gives you -- it puts you in a good frame of mind. Probably I wouldn't have had a weekend like this if I didn't have two wins under my belt. Just knowing my game more and knowing how to manage it and that was, today and yesterday, about managing and trying to shoot the lowest score possible because it was uncomfortable out there.

Q. Is there any element of like kind of angst about the finish or is it more so gratitude for the good week as a whole and how do those emotions -- like what's the predominant emotion right now?

NICO ECHAVARRIA: It's gratitude. How I said it, winning a tournament is hard, but I had a chance to win with I'm not going to say my B game, but putter was A plus and the rest was B to C plus. Just happy with where the game is and happy to rest the next few weeks.
