

ROUND 2 QUICK QUOTES
February 21, 2025

MASON ANDERSEN (-6)

Q. First made cut most likely, I should say. That up-and-down right there on 18, what's going through your mind there?

MASON ANDERSEN: Well, a lot actually. I waited for about 15 minutes for a rules official so a lot was going through my mind. Yeah, it was cool. I mean, I was just trying to get it on the green. Probably fatted it a little bit more than I wanted to and made the putt.

Q. Kind of emotions going through your head as you got that 20-footer, 15-footer, whatever it was there on 18 for birdie?

MASON ANDERSEN: Just like control the speed kind of, don't three-putt. I mean, I'm kind of like right on the cutline so bogey'd probably send me into a not-so-great spot. Just trying to get it close and tap it in, but it went in, so cool.

Q. Anything going through your mind throughout the day as far as making the cut goes? Are you a scoreboard watcher, are you looking at stuff like that, projected cutline?

MASON ANDERSEN: I don't know. Yeah, I was, but then I kept missing cuts so I stopped worrying about it and started just playing golf and not caring that much. I think there's a very fine line between caring too much and not caring enough. So yeah, I'm just trying to find maybe a little less care and it frees me up a bit, play better golf.
