

ROUND 4 QUICK QUOTES
February 23, 2025

BRIAN CAMPBELL (-20, won playoff)

Q. Brian you turned professional in 2015, had your card in 2017, lost it, you've struggled, you've toiled. What did it take for you to climb this mountain today?

BRIAN CAMPBELL: Grit, that's the only word I can think of right now. I'm literally freaking out on the inside, I have no idea what's going on, but just grit. I mean, my team, my whole family, everybody around me, I'm just so appreciative of everything. To be in this position is just so unreal. I just, you know, I can't believe it really, it's awesome.

Q. How much was your heart in your throat on that last tee shot on 18?

BRIAN CAMPBELL: Oh, my gosh, that bounce? I mean, I'll take it, but got ourself back in position and gave ourselves a chance and it paid off.

Q. You gave up some 40 yards to Potgieter. What was the challenge of not just sticking to your game plan, but trusting that it would be enough?

BRIAN CAMPBELL: Just right there, you've got to trust it as much as you can. It's impressive how far some of these guys hit it out here. That's just on me and I've got to take my game elsewhere. Man, I'm just excited but this week has been awesome, thank you.

Q. Second playoff hole, take us through your thoughts from the tee box, where that tee shot was going. What happened there?

BRIAN CAMPBELL: I mean, you've got to get those breaks sometimes. Unfortunately I hit a really bad tee shot there, caught the tree, was able to keep it in play and get ourselves in a good position to get a wedge and keep the pressure on. I was just so happy that I was able to kind of stay in it to the end.

Q. Been on a long journey to get here. People haven't seen the downs, but this is an up. What does it mean for you, your family, your life going forward?

BRIAN CAMPBELL: It means everything. And honestly, I have no idea what's going on right now, I just need to soak this in. Yeah, I can't thank everybody around me enough really, the family, the support, everybody back home, it's been amazing.

Q. There are other players out there on the same journey right now that you're on. What's your message to them in terms of making it back to the top like this?

BRIAN CAMPBELL: Trust yourself. This is a crazy game that we choose to play out here, but keep believing in yourself and have a lot of grit out there. It's cool to see what can happen.
