

ROUND 2 QUICK QUOTES
March 28, 2025

TAYLOR PENDRITH (-10)

Q. Taylor, back-to-back rounds of 65 heading into weekend. Just how would you assess your game so far out here in Houston?

TAYLOR PENDRITH: Yeah, it's been very solid. Today, hit a lot of good shots with my irons and some wedges and kind of did everything very solid today. Drove it nice again. Putter missed a couple makeable ones I think, but rolled in a few nice ones. Yeah, everything's been very solid.

Q. You had three birdies in your final five holes. What was clicking for you down the stretch?

TAYLOR PENDRITH: Yeah, I hit a really nice shot on 7, 7-iron to 15 feet maybe and rolled that in. And 8, hit two really nice shots to get it just short of the green. Was kind of a tricky little chip shot and was able to chip it to four, five feet and make that. Had a nice look on the last and just a little bit of a misread. It was a good finish, kind of hung around all day and was able to make a few late ones.

Q. Obviously weather's been a little spotty these last two days, but forecast looks a little better heading into the weekend. How does that change your approach, your game plan attacking this golf course?

TAYLOR PENDRITH: Obviously the course is a little soft right now. There wasn't much wind today, so scores are lower today, for sure. I haven't really looked at the wind forecast, but if it's breezy, it will be tricky, for sure. I think you're going to need a couple more low ones to get it done. Yeah, I'm in a good spot, I'm looking forward to the weekend and hopefully have some fun.
