

ROUND 2 QUICK QUOTES
April 18, 2025

THEO HUMPHREY (-4)

Q. Theo, it looks like it will hold, but what does it mean to potentially make your first cut on Tour? How's that feel today?

THEO HUMPHREY: Yeah, it's definitely exciting. I think I only found out a couple days before that I even was going to be playing this week.

My goal was definitely not to make the cut coming in, it was to shoot four good rounds and really compete with these guys. Obviously after having a really rough day yesterday, it was nice to shoot a good round today and maybe not quite get back in the mix just yet but at least have a chance for the weekend.

Q. How do those five straight birdies on the front nine today give you confidence? What was that like out there today in the tough conditions?

THEO HUMPHREY: Yeah. Well, the front nine especially with today's wind direction was just going to play drastically easier in the back, and I knew if I wanted to have a chance to play the weekend, I knew my front nine needed to be good because you're probably just not going to shoot 3, 4 under today on the back.

I wasn't expecting to make five in a row, but hit a bunch of good shots, made one long putt and I somehow did it. And then wish I would have, you know, shot a little lower on the back, but it is what it is.

Q. How has PGA TOUR Americas been for you this season and how has that tour helped you? I think fifth in Argentina and in (indiscernible) finish in Brazil. What's that been like this year?

THEO HUMPHREY: Yeah, honestly, it's been great. I spent the last two years after losing my Korn Ferry card just kind of playing Mondays and mini tour events. I felt like it was hard to know where my game was at a lot of the time, hard to know what to work on, how to get better.

Just having a place to play that actually means something -- if you play well, you can move up in the world of golf -- has been awesome. So I'm thankful for the opportunity to play down there and it was nice to get off to -- nice to get off to a good start and hopefully I can keep it rolling here this week.

Q. What are you looking to do this weekend ideally, to improve or capitalize on?

THEO HUMPHREY: Yeah, absolutely. I mean, obviously I'm probably going to make the cut by one or two shots so not going to have a whole lot to lose. Need to come out tomorrow, and I didn't look at the wind for tomorrow but obviously I need to come out and be aggressive, try to make a lot of birdies and give myself a chance to finish a little higher up on Sunday.
