

ROUND 2 QUICK QUOTES August 2, 2025

JOEL DAHMEN (-12)

Q. Joel, how did Round 2 compare to Round 1 and how do you feel about your position into the next couple days?

JOEL DAHMEN: There's two Round 2s for me. The first one, Friday, was a bit tough for me. Speed of the greens I struggled with, I three-putted a couple times. Didn't hit it in great spots.

So it was kind of a nice reset for me, but I didn't expect this in Greensboro, North Carolina, in August. This is unbelievable. It's like 68 degrees and raining and windy. I think this is my seventh or eighth time here and this has never happened.

It was a grind this morning, but I made a great couple par saves, made a couple great birdies and put myself in a great spot.

Q. What do you think you'll draw on kind of into this weekend as you'll look to return to the winner's circle on Tour?

JOEL DAHMEN: Yeah, I had a little accident there in the spring at Corales, so I'm excited for this weekend, I get another chance at it. You never know when you get another chance.

But I'm excited. My golf game's pretty good right now, my head space is pretty good. Hopefully I get paired with Mark Hubbard. It's looking like I am. Roommates this week, best friends, hopefully we have a great weekend.

Q. What's your living -- room situation this week?

JOEL DAHMEN: It's great, yeah. My coach, Rob Rashell, Mark Hubbard's in the house, and then we have our P.T., Ed Bolt. So it's a nice place in High Point. We've been eating good meals and hanging out, it's been great.

Q. Who's been cooking?

JOEL DAHMEN: We rotate. So I cooked a few nights. Mark, because we were late getting home so he had a nice meal prepped for us, chicken and some orzo salad. It was delicious, and watched some terrible Netflix show, but it was great.
