

ROUND 3 QUICK QUOTES
August 2, 2025

GARY WOODLAND (-9)

Q. Gary, a little bit of everything on the back nine. How do you assess the day as a whole?

GARY WOODLAND: I'm proud of the way I fought. I don't really know what happened there on 10, I didn't think I made that bad of a swing and the ball maybe got up in the wind a little bit and carried out of bounds, and a bad drive there on 11. Outside of that. I'm so proud of the way I fought. I could have let that round get away pretty easily. Hung in there, nice putt there to make birdie there. Kind of bounced back on 12 and hit some good shots. Last hole was a little frustrating, but we'll throw that one away and rely on the good stuff that I fought to get back in it.

Q. Alluding to that, hanging in there, is that something that you've gotten more and more comfortable with as these kind of two years have gone on?

GARY WOODLAND: I don't know about that. I think I just kept telling myself I played really well. I'm comfortable with my game, which is a huge deal. You're going to hit bad shots, and unfortunately I had a couple bad ones in a row, but I just kept relying on the fact that I know my game's in a really good spot.

Q. What's the pressure like tomorrow?

GARY WOODLAND: To be honest with you, not crazy. I know my game's in a good spot. I know if I go out and play like I can, I'll be fine and I'll rely on that.

I've been on the bubble on Tour a lot over my career. Some of those were for top-30 and that was probably a little bit easier fighting to get into Playoffs.

But for me, I'm just going to go and bank that I know I'm playing really well. Try to take it one shot at a time, focus on what's in front of me and try to enjoy it. There's a lot worse places I could be, so I'm going to try to enjoy tomorrow. It's a privilege. I haven't had really a big opportunity to try to get in the Playoffs the last three or four years, so I'll enjoy tomorrow.

Q. Is it going to be fun? Are you going to try to treat it as a fun opportunity tomorrow?

GARY WOODLAND: I'm going to try to keep things as slow as I can for my health standpoint. Like I said, I know I'm playing well, which is a big deal. I've been in this situation trying to fight to get in the Playoffs and I hadn't been playing well. This is a little different, I know my game's in a good spot. If I can go out there and execute what's in front of me, should be pretty good.
