

East Lake Cup Women – Match Play
October 28, 2025

SOPHIA FULLBROOK
Florida State

Q. Sophia, congrats. What was it like just being able to start your team off on the right foot today with a win?

SOPHIA FULLBROOK: I think it's very important. Obviously conditions were tough yesterday. Four seed is not exactly ideal, but yeah we knew that it was going to be a grind.

Q. What was the key to staying consistent throughout the match today?

SOPHIA FULLBROOK: I think honestly pars. With conditions as they are, quite cold, a hard course obviously, yeah, I think pars get you quite far. So not pushing for birdies at times, yeah.

Q. And how's it feel to be able to get off the course early today knowing you'll have another match tomorrow?

SOPHIA FULLBROOK: It feels great, especially going out first. It's going to be fun.

Q. And after yesterday's conditions and playing just nine holes, what was your mindset coming into today knowing it was back to regular play?

SOPHIA FULLBROOK: It was nice. It was a new day. I think that's what we all thought. Yeah, just treat it as a new day and whatever comes our way, comes our way.

Q. Last question: What's your mindset heading into tomorrow and who are you going to go watch after this?

SOPHIA FULLBROOK: I don't know, whoever's right behind me, probably Elin. Yeah, just the same. See how we get on today and then no matter what the result is, give tomorrow 100 percent.
