

East Lake Cup Women – Match Play
October 29, 2025

COACH EMILY FLETCHER
Northwestern

Q. I'm here with Coach Emily Fletcher, and what impressed you the most about your players' effort and attitude this week?

COACH EMILY FLETCHER: Yeah, I mean, it was tough, it was pretty brutal conditions out there today. We didn't get off to the greatest of starts. I was pretty proud of the way we kind of kept battling. We were down in nearly every match off of the front nine. Dianna kind of rallied there on 8 and 9. Just their perseverance. Arianna fought back and birdied 14, 15, 17. Same thing for Hsin, she fought hard and was all square coming up the last.

Just it's easy to sort of get discouraged out there when the weather's bad and you're not playing your best, but I think they did a great job, kept a good attitude and hopefully we learned a little something.

Q. Yeah, so what do you hope your team takes away from competing here at East Lake?

COACH EMILY FLETCHER: I think just managing conditions, one. Sort of figuring out your layering, what works and what doesn't work. And knowing on difficult golf courses like this you still need your play your game, get yourself in position. That was a big part of it today, especially on the front nine with the wind, it was pretty tough. Hopefully that and just a little bit of confidence they can take away from this week as well.
