

ROUND 4 QUICK QUOTES
November 16, 2025

STEWART CINK (-20)

Q. Well, Stewart, you said at the beginning of the year your goal's to win the Charles Schwab Cup. Not only that, but you won the Charles Schwab Championship. Tell us.

STEWART CINK: Well, it was a good week start to finish. If I had to point to one stretch of golf that really I was the most proud of this week, it was probably the holes after -- I had a stretch of just nothing really good going on on Friday, but I finished with like three birdies in the last six or something like that. I just got myself together and that was a big turning point for me because like everybody, we've all lost tournaments, but I've lost a few and it was in that way. So I was really proud of turning it around. I've got a great team, Chris, I've got Siegmund seeing out here and John Scott back at home, my wife Lisa, parents were here even. It's a great week. I'm very, very pleased.

Q. It's fantastic to have everybody out, that's unique. And I've got to ask you, your first eight holes, didn't hit a fairway. Looked like something clicked, you hit a beautiful drive on 9 and from a there on you drove it just perfect.

STEWART CINK: Yeah, I drove it nice all week. You're never going to hit every fairway. We hit it pretty far --

Q. You hit it far.

STEWART CINK: -- and the fairway gets pretty small out there when you drive it 300 in the air. I was very happy with the way I drove it. It's been a good year of progress for me with the driver, for sure. Start to finish, I'm a different player than I was at the start of the year and this week was just like icing on the cake and validation for the work that John Scott and I are putting in, and Billy, my trainer at home. We're just doing the right things and the ball's telling us the truth.

Q. One last thing: Have fun tonight with your family. It's a unique experience. I think we'll see you here again?

STEWART CINK: I hope so. I love this place, it's fun to play. Only played here twice so far, last year and this year, but it's a good track. And right here in Phoenix, it's one of America's top golf cities and the fans out here support us great.
