

ROUND 4 QUICK QUOTES
November 23, 2025

NICO ECHAVARRIA (-19)

Q. Nico, how proud are you of your play this week and to be able to get in those first two Signature Events next year?

NICO ECHAVARRIA: Yeah, I'm very happy. To be honest, I didn't have my best this week and having a result like that with your B-game, I was kind of uncomfortable with the irons all week. The putter obviously got hot. So I'm very proud of the way I battled.

Q. How big is it to be able to get into those first two Signature Events next year?

NICO ECHAVARRIA: Well, it's huge. A lots of people are criticizing the schedule, the decisions that we took with LIV of making these elevated events. It's so important to get into those and it's so hard that I'm glad I can play those first two like I did last year. I hope I can get something more than I did this year, because the start of the year is so important.

Q. Was that your goal coming into this week, or what was your mindset?

NICO ECHAVARRIA: Yeah, the goal was to -- I honestly thought only like a top-30 or top-40 would do it. I didn't think I had to finish top-10 or top-15, so I'm very glad I battled and I finished -- I'm going to probably finish seventh or eighth.

Q. And you seem to have a lot of success in the fall. What is it about these events that just gives you the motivation?

NICO ECHAVARRIA: I like this course. Some people are tired at the end of the year. I'm motivated just to play well. Yeah, I seem to play good at the end of the years in my career.

Q. How many guys do you think are going to go over and play Sony with no Sentry the week before, in terms of the top guys, and how big of an opportunity is it to maybe get off to a good start there?

NICO ECHAVARRIA: I think the field is going to take a hit, especially, like you said, the big names. But it's still a good place to start the year. I mean, the weather's perfect. You're already going off to the West Coast, Palm Springs is the week after. So I think the field's going to be affected, but it's going to be less than what you guys think.
