

ROUND 2 QUICK QUOTES
December 5, 2025

CAMERON YOUNG

Q. Cam, six shots lower today than yesterday.

CAMERON YOUNG: Yeah.

Q. Where did you see the most improvement?

CAMERON YOUNG: It's hard to say. I made a couple putts late but it is just one of those courses where, I actually said it to Kyle yesterday, I felt like we played pretty well and, you know, comfortably could have shot 4, 5, 6 under, and the scoring made 2 feel kind of bad yesterday. But the reality is day to day out here you just can have runs of holes where it starts to feel easy and it's not that different to yesterday. I feel like I played pretty similarly and just made a couple putts down the stretch.

Q. Yeah, can you talk about that back nine?

CAMERON YOUNG: Yeah.

Q. Obviously got it rolling there pretty good.

CAMERON YOUNG: Yeah. Hit a really nice shot into 10 in that right bunker, did a good job kind of leaving it just short. It's kind of a hard number to get because you can't really see the back of the green there. Made a nice putt.

I just barely missed on 11. Hit it close on 12. Left one hanging on the front lip on 13. Yeah, then was fortunate to chip in on the par 5 and make a putt there on 16 and 17. It kind of just is one of those little stretches where I had some tap-ins and then made a couple, too. Just ended up being a big string of good holes. Yeah, nice to have the scoring turn around a little bit.

Q. Still got a month plus before next season will start. Anything that happens this week, do you think it can carry momentum into next year?

CAMERON YOUNG: Yeah, it certainly can. I'm kind of not using the week as practice, but I'm using the week to try to build on some things that we've been doing and less so looking at the results just because I haven't played any competition in the last couple months. So it's more just an opportunity to keep building on what we were doing mentally. I don't think the result is necessarily going to dictate the outcome, I think it's going to be more kind of how we go through our process and how we attack the golf course.
