

ROUND 3 QUICK QUOTES
December 14, 2025

CHARLEY HULL

MICHAEL BRENNAN (-25)

Q. Here with Michael and Charley after their final round here at the Grant Thornton Invitational. Just kind of take us through the week, just a nice little way to end the season.

CHARLEY HULL: Yeah, I really enjoyed playing with Michael. He's got a great game and it's just so much fun. We said this was probably one of the most fun weeks of the year and it was great. Obviously we were just trying to hole out on the last hole, but they played great. I just had such a fun week, so thank you.

MICHAEL BRENNAN: Yeah, week was amazing. I found out Monday I was playing and I appreciate Charley saying that I was OK being her partner for the week. I mean, I had great fun. It was a great we can.

Q. Anything in particular you guys took away from each other like when you were playing together?

MICHAEL BRENNAN: Yeah, Charley's a baller. I didn't really have my best stuff today, really loose with the irons, but she, I mean, kept us in it pretty much single handedly so it was pretty impressive.

Q. Last one, obviously for us, Charley, heading into the offseason, what will you be doing to kind of get ready for 2026? I know you guys are still in it, but what do you take away from this week in terms of working on?

CHARLEY HULL: Yeah, like I've been hitting it really well all year, like my iron play's been unbelievable. And just this week it's been pretty poor, my Iron play has. I've done a lot of work on my swing. I tried doing it last week and my feels wasn't quite there this week and I just played with what I had. Just go home, a couple days off and then practice because I enjoy doing that.

MICHAEL BRENNAN: Yeah, same stuff. I don't think I really have anything going on between now and Sony next year event-wise, so I'm excited to kind of have some downtime. Like Charley said, time to work on some stuff to hopefully come out a little stronger next year.
